

2016

Catawba/Three Rivers DISTRICT

WEBELOS WOODS

March 11-13.2016

WHAT: Troops, the Webelos Woods is an opportunity for your Boy Scouts to introduce Scouting skills to the Webelos and their partners. Some of your future Scouts will want to see their future unit in action, so why not show them, and be part of Webelos Woods 2016. Include a handout of your troop's yearly activities.

WHEN: March 11th to 13, 2016 (Friday evening – Sunday morning)

WHERE: Chester State Park

COST: $10 per Scouts and Adults

WHO: First and Second year Webelos....YOUR FUTURE BOY SCOUTS!!

Boy Scout Troops:

SPL & SCOUTMASTER CRACKER BARREL: 9:30 PM Friday (2/11/16) evening. This meeting will take place at the headquarter tent. The weekend events will be discussed.

WEBELOS WOODS MISSION STATEMENT:

The mission statement of Webelos Woods is to promote an outdoor experience for both the Webelos Scout and their adult partner, emphasizing the importance of interaction between the Webelos Scouts and various troops in the Catawba and Three Rivers Districts. The troops will provide a sampling of activities that occur in the day to day operation of a typical troop, establishing a hands on opportunity for Webelos Scouts to learn and experience various outdoor activities that the Boy Scout program has to offer, maximizing the opportunity for the Webelos Scouts "TO HAVE FUN."

PROGRAM: The following is a listing of activities you Boy Scout will share with the Webelos and His Partner. Giving them; challenges and FUN!!

Troops, please take time to discuss your Troop skills that they would like to help with and register to participate at the Webelos Woods. If your troop would like to share a skill that is not listed, please e-mail your activity for approval and to register. If you would like to help with an activity, please fill out the form below and get to Pete.
